SADIE BRADLEY

ORDER OVERRULING MOTION TO RECONSIDER

THIS CAUSE IS BEFORE THE COURT on Motion to Reconsider [36] filed by Sadie Bradley, and Government's Response thereto [38], and the Court considering the same finds that the Motion should be DENIED for the reasons hereinafter set forth.

Over a period of at least thirty (30) years Sadie Bradley used numerous names and at least two (2) social security numbers to fraudulently obtain at least $197,216.11 in benefits from the Social Security Administration to which she was not entitled. The fraud began at least as early as 1987 and continued until at least October 2017. In order to perpetrate the fraud Movant used numerous names, lied about her employment, her marital status, her resources and the fact that she was being paid SSI benefits. The Court considered her age, physical condition and other circumstances as set forth in the Presentence Investigation prior to imposing sentence and finds that there is no reason to reconsider. For the reasons stated the Court finds that the Motion should be, and is hereby OVERRULED.

SO ORDERED this the 16th day of October, 2019.
